

family matters

n. / fam•uh•lee mat•ers /

1. They asked to borrow the money. You lent them the money. 2. Now you would like the money back...please?

Lending money to family and friends?

There's a big chance you won't see that money again...

Many of us give the money with the best intentions and a positive outlook, believing the best. The reality is not all informal loans get paid back. Our new product, Bank on Family, smooths the process of lending to friends and family by using the Credit Union as the facilitator in the process. And this will definitely increase the likelihood that you will get your money back.

A few simple pieces of info are all you need to get started.

Ask us about it!

frenemy

n. / fren•uh•mee /

1. High school homies. College roomies. And then there's that $300. 2. Things were never the same...

Lending money to family and friends?

There's a big chance you won't see that money again...

Many of us give the money with the best intentions and a positive outlook, believing the best. The reality is not all informal loans get paid back. Our new product, Bank on Family, smooths the process of lending to friends and family by using the Credit Union as the facilitator in the process. And this will definitely increase the likelihood that you will get your money back.

A few simple pieces of info are all you need to get started.

Ask us about it!

all in the family

n. /awl in thuh fam•uh•lee /

They say ‘blood is thicker than water.’
Well, apparently your memory is better than Uncle Mike’s...

Lending money to family and friends?
There's a big chance you won't see that money again...

Many of us give the money with the best intentions and a positive outlook, believing the best. The reality is not all informal loans get paid back. Our new product, Bank on Family, smooths the process of lending to friends and family by using the Credit Union as the facilitator in the process. And this will definitely increase the likelihood that you will get your money back.

A few simple pieces of info are all you need to get started.

Ask us about it!

friend zone

n. / frend•zohn /

If you're trying to move things along, you should probably make good on that promise to pay. Just sayin'.

Lending money to family and friends?

There's a big chance you won't see that money again...

Many of us give the money with the best intentions and a positive outlook, believing the best. The reality is not all informal loans get paid back. Our new product, Bank on Family, smooths the process of lending to friends and family by using the Credit Union as the facilitator in the process. And this will definitely increase the likelihood that you will get your money back.

A few simple pieces of info are all you need to get started.

Ask us about it!

family matters

n. / fam•uh•lee mat•ers /

1. They asked to borrow the money. You lent them the money. 2. You would like the money back...please?

Many of us give the money with the best intentions and a positive outlook, believing the best. The reality is not all informal loans get paid back. Our new product, Bank on Family, smooths the process of lending to friends and family by using the Credit Union as the facilitator in the process. And this will definitely increase the likelihood that you will get your money back.

A few simple pieces of info are all you need to get started.

Ask us about it!

