

Filene Research Institute

customized INNOVATION PROGRAMMING

Filene's innovation programs are customized to meet your strategic goals and the diverse needs of your membership. Whether it's to serve your credit union or through collaborative efforts with other credit unions and stakeholders, our goal is to make innovation curriculum affordable and accessible through the credit union industry.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

- Filene helps you gather 1-3 problems that your credit union, membership, or community faces
- Your team is introduced to the Filene Method of Innovation and spends time putting self-selected problems through the methodology
- Filene staff provides the tools, research, and inspiration to create innovative solutions to explore the problems
- Each of your team members receives a Filene Method workbook, hands-on support from Filene's senior leaders, and a professional development experience that yields instant results

COLLABORATE THROUGH INNOVATION

The more the merrier! Innovation programming allows for collaboration between credit unions, state leagues and other organizations. This approach can strengthen partnerships and allow organizations to share the program cost, time, and resources.

Aside from the options above, we're happy to adjust our innovation programming to meet the strategic needs and timing for your organization. Let us know!

"The Filene Innovation Immersion provided our credit union with the tools, and processes to foster and embed innovation as a fundamental of our service and delivery model. "
